Enjoy Egg-cellent Easter Workshops in Romford Market this April

Romford BID, Havering Changing and House of Polish & European Community are pleased to announce that they have arranged several Easter workshops for families to enjoy during the Easter holidays. Workshops will take place within Romford Market on 1st and 8th April between 12pm – 4pm.

During 1st April workshop children will be able to make cards, palms and baskets to use during Easter festivities. Then on 8th April children can learn how to decorate an easter Egg using a host of different materials and methods. The workshops will be taught by local tutors. Parents must remain present with their children during the workshops.

Julie Frost, Romford BID Director said, “We are delighted to provide entertainment for children here within Romford this April. These workshops are the perfect opportunity for kids to get creative and enjoy all the treats of the season without parents having to worry about cleaning up after the fun!”
